

Deaf Empowerment present ★
An evening of fun at Wild-Air (Soft Play Center)! Trust me, it's not only for kids, but for adults, too!

Bring your families for a free night of Soft Play Center provided by Deaf Empowerment.

February 28, 2005 (Monday) 6—7:30pm

Wild-Air
W3223 Springfield Drive
Appleton, WI 54915
(920) 830-2200

Get ready to tumble until you drop on February 28th, 2005 from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm.

Contact Lori Fuller to RSVP by February 26. You can email her at loriann@deafe.org, call TTY to (920) 729-4420 or leave a voice message at (920) 729-3794.

Deaf Empowerment's Child and Family Services have been established to help children and families who have been affected by Deafness or Hearing Loss.

Our events provide an opportunity for the kids to get to know other children with similar hearing loss as well as adult role models, while also providing parents a time to talk about their common issues.

These events are free thanks to generous grants from Time Warner Cable and The Fox Cities Community Foundation.
